The Singapore Business Federation together with Network Indonesia and Angeline Suparto & Company are organizing the second of a 3-part series of legal workshop.

Ms Angeline Suparto has practised law for 26 years and throughout these years of legal practice, she specialized in corporate, banking, property and dispute matters with a special focus on Indonesian transactions. She was awarded the Simon K.Y. Lee Medal in Laws by ranking first in the class of 1982 and the Baker & McKenzie Book Prize for obtaining a distinction in Company Law.

This workshop will cover issues such as:
- Summary of the Legal & Regulatory Framework
- Setting up a new PMA company or appointing a Distributor in Indonesia
- Engaging in the Logistics Sector
- Opportunities for Foreign Investors
- Effective Ways to structure Retail Operations in Indonesia
- Franchising in Indonesia

and case studies!

Do join us to seek an in-depth understanding on the regulatory framework and working knowledge of what is required when investing in Indonesia so as to assist you in better planning and executing business ventures in Indonesia.
