INTERNATIONAL BUSINESS FELLOWSHIP

Executive Programme on Vietnam

6 - 12 May 2010

Vietnam is a promising emerging economy in Southeast Asia. Bilateral trade was $13 billion last year and Singapore is Vietnam's fifth-largest investor with investments of $24 billion in 766 projects.

The International Enterprise (IE) Singapore and the Singapore Business Federation (SBF), together with the Vietnam National University, Hanoi School of Business (HSB) and the University of Economics in Ho Chi Minh City (UEH), invites you to attend the International Business Fellowship (iBF) Executive Programme on Vietnam.

To be conducted in Hanoi and Ho Chi Minh City, Vietnam, the programme is designed to provide participants with a comprehensive overview of Vietnam's business systems, practices and varied possibilities.

- Vietnam's economic and business scenario
▪ Government and politics in Vietnam
▪ Vietnamese culture
▪ Human resource issues in a competitive Vietnamese market
▪ Business experiences in Vietnam
▪ Opportunities in various industries

Participants can look forward to company visits to gain practical insights on business operations in Vietnam as well as networking opportunities with the speakers, business experts and industry practitioners.

The programme is suitable for:

- Senior management from Singapore-based companies that have business or seek to explore business opportunities in Vietnam
▪ Senior officers from public sector organizations who support business initiatives that add value to Singapore and Vietnam

Only 25 participants will be accepted for each programme and class placements will be decided by IE Singapore / SBF.

About the International Business Fellowship

The International Business Fellowship Programme supports Singapore-based companies in the training of company executives to acquire business knowledge and build networks in the supported markets of Central Asia, China, India, Latin America, the Middle East, Russia and Vietnam.
