Introduction

The Public Private Partnership seminar is part of the "Meet-The-Experts" series designed to encourage knowledge sharing among industry professionals. It aims to address both the business and technical issues surrounding Business Continuity Management and the disaster recovery process.

This event is organised by the Singapore Business Federation and BCM Institute. It aims to bring sharing to an international level with an expert perspective from the United States and Singapore. Dr Thomas Phelan, a founding member of the U.S. Department of Homeland Security and a foremost expert in Public Private Partnership will be sharing his extensive experience together with Col Anwar Abdullah, Director of Operations in the Singapore Civil Defence Force.

The sharing will be enhanced with information session on the National Business Continuity Management (BCM) Program, on the available support scheme that is available for implementation of BCM for Singapore organisations.
