ASEAN BUSINESS ADVISORY COUNCIL

The ASEAN Business Advisory Council (ASEAN-BAC) was established by the ASEAN Heads of State and Government (HOSGs) at the 7th ASEAN Summit in November 2001 in Bandar Seri Begawan, Brunei Darussalam. Inaugurated at the ASEAN Secretariat in Jakarta, Indonesia in April 2003, ASEAN-BAC's primary mission is to promote public-private sector partnership to achieving the integration for the creation of an ASEAN Economic Community (AEC). ASEAN-BAC provides private sector feedback on the implementation of ASEAN economic cooperation and identifies priority areas for the consideration of the ASEAN Leaders.

The activities of ASEAN-BAC are to:

- a) review/identify issues to facilitate and promote economic cooperation and integration;
- b) submit annual recommendations for the consideration of the ASEAN HOSGs; and
- c) organize the annual ASEAN Business & Investment Summit (ASEAN-BIS) to coincide with the annual ASEAN Summits

Members of ASEAN-BAC

ASEAN-BAC members are appointed by their respective Governments comprising high-level CEOs of companies from each member country and represented by 3 members per member country, with one representing the interest of small and medium size enterprises. Government focal points, at the Ministerial level, have been assigned to assist ASEAN-BAC to fulfill its mandate.

In carrying out its objectives, ASEAN-BAC holds regular meetings across ASEAN countries and engages in various ASEAN level forums to meet up with government and private sector representatives so that all stakeholders concerned have full understanding, acceptance and ownership of the ASEAN integration process. Various Committees under ASEAN-BAC have been formed to meet its mandate.
