

Introduction to ICC Singapore Arbitration Group (ICC SAG)

2023 / 2024

(version of 22 March 2024)

What is ICC SAG?

- Formed in June 2019
- A body of volunteers
- Represents the Singapore community to promote ICC Dispute Resolution Services, and develop the breadth and depth of expertise of the community involved in dispute resolution
- Led by a Chair, Vice-Chair and Secretary, the ICC SAG Core Committee comprises 3 sub-committees:
 - Engagement
 - Enrichment
 - Empowerment

What is ICC SAG?

- The 3 sub-committees of volunteers work closely with the ICC Arbitration and ADR team in charge of South Asia to roll out events and initiatives in Singapore
- These events and initiatives facilitate networking, and provide opportunities to promote the sharing of knowledge, insights and expertise in relation to ICC Dispute Resolution Services
- Membership to ICC SAG is complimentary and is open to all persons based in Singapore
